CONTINUED PUBLIC COMMENTS (MATTERS NOT ON AGENDA)

Public comment on non-agendized matters was received from: Dan Presser, Char Carter, Lorna Moffatt, Luis Osorio, an unidentified person, and Brian Rosen.

Adjourn to Joint Special Meeting and Establish Quorum of the Planning Commission

The Council was joined by the Planning Commission and adjourned to the Joint Special Meeting at 7:19 p.m.

Recording Secretary Cleary called the roll of the City Council and the Planning Commission, with the following members present: Councilmember Barber, Councilmember Garcia, Councilmember Haffa, Councilmember Smith, Mayor Williamson, Chair Fletcher, Vice Chair Bluth, Commissioner Brassfield, Commissioner Dawson, Commissioner Latasa, Commissioner Silva, Commissioner Freeman, thus establishing that a quorum was in attendance for both the City Council and the Planning Commission.

JOINT SPECIAL MEETING: CITY COUNCIL AND PLANNING COMMISSION

Action: Received report

City Manager Uslar introduced item 11 and briefly described the progress made concerning the matter. Associate Planner Sabdo introduced Consultant Andrew Hill, who gave the staff presentation and answered Councilmember and Commissioner questions, including questions regarding deadlines and regulations, location feasibility, proposed versus existing conditions, the scoring and assessment process, and potentially changing the buffer.

Public comment was received from: Kevin Dayton, who listed potential solutions to increase the number of housing units within the City; Luis Osorio, who urged the Council to take action as the issue spans nationwide; P.K. Diffenbaugh, who said School District staff and students struggle with housing and suggested ways to increase employee and middle-income housing; Nelson Vega, who expressed frustrations with constraints from existing City processes; an unidentified person, who advocated for a stronger Police presence and asked if the Regional Housing Needs Allocation (RHNA) requirements had been challenged; Tom Rowley, who spoke of lost opportunities and the unaddressed job-housing balance; Lorna Moffat, who advised suing the Governor, placing a moratorium on all future building, and utilizing vacant hotel rooms and buildings for housing; Tom Reeves, who commented on traffic gridlock and suggested opportunity sites to consider; Esther Malkin, who suggested some of the provided information may be incomprehensible to some members of the general public; Richard Ruccello, who described challenges faced in developing and funding housing or increasing residential density in high-traffic areas; Robert Yoha, who brought up issues presented by the low water availability and potential for losing local services such as grocery stores; Diane Coward, who echoed previous comments regarding the need for housing and obstacles hindering the ability to provide more; and Tammy Jennings, who agreed with the suggestion to challenge the Governor on this requirement.

The City Council and Planning Commission discussed the matter. Mr. Hill answered questions while describing further details regarding the project's considerations, analyses, goals, procedures, strategies, and challenges. Suggestions and cautions were voiced to help improve feasibility and affordability in attempt to increase housing development opportunities within the City. Main points of interest included Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs), Junior Accessory Dwelling Units (JADUs), promotion of incentives, proposed and potential development sites, support for locals and the existing workforce, transportation and parking issues, potentials for rezoning, quality of life, streamlining processes, Area Median Income (AMI), funding and subsidizing costs, environmental constraints such as extreme lack of water and eminent sea level rise, the needs to partner with private sector developers and increase the buffer, streamlining permit approvals, and increasing density.

Adjourn to City Council Meeting

At 10:34 p.m., the Joint Special Meeting adjourned and the Council adjourned back to the City Council Regular meeting.

The Council then recessed at 10:34 p.m. and reconvened at 10:42 p.m. with the full Council present.

Mayor Williamson introduced a motion to approve Map 4 as presented.

Councilmember Barber disagreed because the map included the Andronico's grocery store.

The motion failed for lack of a seconder.

Councilmember Haffa introduced a substitute motion to approve Map 4 excluding the Andronico's site. Mayor Williamson seconded the substitute motion.

City Manager Uslar explained that Andronico's lies in both Monterey and Pacific Grove.

Councilmember Haffa amended the substitute motion to also exempt the Carl's Jr. portion of the site. The motion's seconder did not agree with the amendment and withdrew his second. The amended substitute motion failed for lack of a seconder.
On a new motion by Mayor Williamson, seconded by Councilmember Garcia, and carried by the following vote, which was conducted by voice, the City Council approved Map 4, excluding the Andronico's site:

AYES: 4 COUNCILMEMBERS: Barber, Garcia, Haffa, Williamson
NOES: 1 COUNCILMEMBERS: Smith
ABSENT: 0 COUNCILMEMBERS: (None)
ABSTAIN: 0 COUNCILMEMBERS: (None)
